Improper cap – very common and least expensive – not allowed for public water supply wells.

Acceptable cap – If used indoors or in special situations with additional provisions. Must have additional cover and down facing well vent with screen. Not allowed for new public water supply wells.

Proper cap – This cap is provided with the required well vent and 24-mesh insect screen.

Improper cap – very common and least expensive – not allowed for public water supply wells.